

Information

JMD is very close to you

There are Youth Migration Services in more than 450 locations in Germany.

You will find a Youth Migration Service very close to you in the Internet under www.jugendmigrationsdienste.de

Sponsored by

By almost 14,000 employees, the Internationaler Bund (IB) is one of the large service providers in the field of youth and social and educational work in Germany. Its motto is: „MenschSein stärken“.

Internationaler Bund (IB)
Location: Frankfurt am Main · Register of associations no. 5259
Editor: Thiemo Fojkar, Chairman of the Executive Board
Contact person: Jochen Kramer
Valentin-Senger-Straße 5 · 60389 Frankfurt am Main Phone 069 94545 0 · Fax 069 94545 280 info@internationaler-bund.de Photos: Servicebüro JMD
www.internationaler-bund.de

04/17-520-04/17-A-5-1000

MenschSein stärken

Goals

IB's Youth Migration Services

- Support young people with a migration background
- Assist with linguistic and social integration and accompany the educational and professional career
- Commit themselves for young people with a migration background and promote participation possibilities in all fields of the social, cultural and political life

Target Groups

- Young people with a migration background aged between 12 and 27 years
- Parents of young people with a migration background in the case of questions with respect to the vocational training/education of their children
- Staff of public authorities, companies, facilities and other institutions
- Persons in the living environment of young people with a migration background

Services

Individual Support

The Youth Migration Service offers young people with migration background a free of charge individual integration plan on a Case-Management basis.

The Youth Migration Service assists

- In cases of personal problems and crises
- In cases with respect to school, studies, vocational training and job
- In cases of the recognition of certificates/ vocational training
- In cases of transition from education to employment
- In cases of the placement into language courses

Group Offers

- Orientation in the educational and vocational training system (Job application training)
- Language and communication training
- Social and political topics
- New media
- Training of social competences
- Parental work

Cooperation in Networks

- Coordination with schools, training organizations and leisure centers
- Support of voluntary work

Intercultural Opening of Services and Institutions

- Information and learning events
- Intercultural trainings
- Public relations work
- Promoting "Intercultural Dialogue"

Here,
the Youth Migration Services look back to many years of vocational experience.

All advice is free of charge.